

Lantern Walk

The lantern walk. We played footy and basketball in the pitch-black night. The hot chocolate was real Italian hot chocie, and after the walk they gave us 2L of it!! Our roast lamb sold out real fast, but the pork was pretty good. I missed out on the singing because I was playing basketball, but I'm happy I missed on the singing. I took Jordyn's lantern, and put it on full beam on my head, blinding everyone around me. It was a fun night full of laughter and lights.
